

Computing

Purpose	Principles	Expectations
<ul style="list-style-type: none">• To thrive in a technological world• To be able to use a range of technological devices• To be safe online• To interact responsibly online• To solve problems and debug• To understand the difference between responsible and irresponsible online behaviour	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Asking and answering questions• Researching using search engines• Inputting, editing and analysing data• Refining searches• Presenting information effectively• Programming – coding and debugging, predicting and testing, evaluating and improving• Communicating using a range of methods• Efficient keyboard skills• Reporting• Understanding networks• Learning how to be safe online – Health, Wellbeing and Lifestyle, Online Relationships, Online Bullying, Copyright and Ownership, Self-image and Identity, Privacy and Security, Managing Information Online, Online Reputation	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Ability to research effectively using a variety of search engines and key vocabulary• Progression of skills and vocabulary• Reflecting on other people's opinions and comments• Use of topical vocabulary• Understanding of technology• Ability to compare how technology has changed• Asking questions, developing an enquiring mind• Applying knowledge• Sharing opinions and participating in discussions in response to a range of scenarios